

QUALITY POLICY

A BETTER TOMORROW

For our customers

By offering cooperations filled by energy, competent technical consultants who makes their services and products better.

For our employees

By grow an engaged culture where people are a part of it, can grow and make a difference – every day.

For the world around us

By taking a social and environmental responsibility and by contributing with sustainable solutions to our society.

Executed work for our customers shall always be based on their demands and needs and shall be pursued according our common way of working, in order to deliver right quality.

Decided on April 2th 2025, by the management of Sigma Industry West